

HELLO!

I want you to meet my neighbors, Jim and Pam. We talked about something one day that maybe you'd like to listen in on.

They are good neighbors. They thought they were ready for Heaven, prepared to go. Several of my neighbors do. They love God just like many in the Bible did. Jim, Pam and I found a common ground this day we talked; that was that we all love the Lord. But Jim and Pam discovered as we talked, that although they thought they were saved, they really hadn't been cleansed by the blood of Christ, hadn't stepped into Christ, and hadn't been born again.

They are honest neighbors. They were able to look at themselves candidly. They were able to let God speak to them through the Bible, and what they saw moved them closer in their walk toward Heaven.

They are now saved neighbors. They learned something new in our conversation that day. They learned that they were honestly mistaken... Their hearts were right, but they were merely misinformed. And wow, the Lord once said we should know the truth, for the truth is what sets us free.

I don't know – maybe you too are like Jim and Pam. I've talked to a lot of neighbors in the last 40 years about the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I've watched faces light up with joy, eyes glow and hearts get excited as they have said to me, "Larry, before now no one has ever shown this to me!"

Let's go to the ball park, you and me. We're with the kids. On our way to the car, I want to ask you the same question I asked Jim and Pam.

Let's talk....
