

As Easy As

There is no shame in not knowing how to win a soul; the shame comes when you have lived your life never having learned how.

And it is as easy as one, two, three.

One, you have got to be focused on doing it. Two, to do that, you must understand that you will never convert until you confront. He has both a sin problem and a grave problem. The only answer is the Gospel of Jesus; Jesus death removes his sin problem, his resurrection his grave problem. "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God." That means somebody has got to do some talking. You've got to address it.

So, three, you must "Ask the question!" "What if the Lord were to come right now; would you know, nothing doubting, you would go to Heaven?"

Everything points to that beginning. Situations differ, but that is the inauguration. That question starts salvation dialog.

At work: "Jim, I want to take you to lunch today. I have something I want to ask you."

At play: "Linda, you are such a dear friend to me. I have noticed you are a real church person. I can tell you really do love the Lord. May I ask you a question?"

To relatives: "Jack, I have watched you all my life. You are always faithful to your church. You read your Bible. I hear you always praise the Lord with you lips. May I ask you something?"

To relatives: "Jack, I have watched you all my life. You are not a church person. Maybe you do read your Bible; I don't know. But I love you and I want you happy ... forever happy. I have read in the Bible myself that one day Jesus is coming again. May I ask you something?"

To strangers on a Wal-Mart parking lot: "Sir, do you love Jesus? You do? Well, the Bible says Jesus is coming again. May I ask you something?"

To strangers in a worldly place: "I am taking a personal interview. Do you believe there is a God?" You do? "Then, do you believe the Bible is the Word of God? You do? Well, the Bible say Jesus is coming again, may I ask you this question"

To neighbors at their doors: “We are Christians trying to meet and help our neighbors. Do you know of anyone in need of food? Of clothing? Anyone lonely we could befriend? We are Christians and we want to make sure our neighbors are going to Heaven. May I ask you this question?”

“Ask the question!” Focus on your objective. Get ready to confront him regarding his eternity. And jump! “Ask the question!”
